Proposal of an Amendment a. Friendly b. Unfriendly	Change, delete, or add to a draft resolution's operative clauses	a. Already approved by all sponsors and circulated to the committee before voting bloc b. Submitted in writing, objected to by at least 1 sponsor, requires signatures of at least 1/10 of the committee, voted on before voting on the resolution as a whole	None	a. None b. None, requires signatures of 1/10 of the body
Division of the Question (Requires Procedural and Substantive Votes)	I. Procedural vote on whether to consider dividing the question II. Substantive Vote to approve/reject the operative clause(s) divided out, if part I passes	Divisions are meant to highlight clauses- the Dais has the discretion to reject a motion to divide the question if delegates have already expressed it will be used to eliminate a clause. If there are multiple divisions they are voted on in the order of most destructive to least destructive If Part II passes, the divided clauses are adopted as an annex to the resolution. Only one division may pass per resolution	2 pro/2 con for Part I	Majority
Voting Motions³: a. Vote by Acclamation b. Vote by Roll Call	a. Pass a draft resolution without vote b. Pass a draft resolution with recorded vote from each delegate	a. Dais will call for objections 3 times. A delegate may object by raising a placard if they plan to vote no on the draft resolution, not if they plan to vote yes or abstain. b. No debate or vote required. This motion passes automatically unless the Dais must reject in the interest of time.	None	a. Unanimous (call for objections) b. None

¹ Debate refers to the required number of delegates to speak for and against the proposed motion.

² Voting refers to whether or not delegates need to vote on the motion itself.

³ If no other motions are received, delegates will by default go into "Vote by Placard"
